

Congratulations to the following 5 students: McKenna Becker, Hannah Weisburn, Alexa Farist, Camille Volk and Alexa Shin who have made it into the 2017 Ohio Governor's Youth Art Exhibition. Only 300 art entries were selected out of over 11, 000 and Revere High School Students display 7 of those images!

29 students received regional recognition with a certificate from the state.

The exhibition of high school student's fine art from over 15 regions in Ohio will be on display from April 23rd to May 18th at James A. Rhodes State Office Tower, Columbus. These students will receive a special ceremony on April 23rd at the Columbus Athenaeum then head over to the exhibit.

For more information; view our Revere Website or the website at: <http://www.govart.org/>
