

Director of Music Emeritus

Dr. Deborah Devore taught forty years with the final thirty-two years at Revere Local School District. Dr. Devore's primary teaching responsibilities include Symphonic Choir, Treble Choir, Men's Choir, Music Theory I and II and Assistant Director of Bands. Prior to her assignment with the Revere Local Schools, she was the Director of Junior High School Bands and Assistant Director of High School Bands for the Geneva Area City Schools in Geneva, Ohio. In addition, she has taught classes at Kent State University and instrumental music classes at St. Patrick's School in Kent, Ohio. Dr. Devore earned her Ph.D. and Master's degrees in Music Education from Kent State University and her Bachelor's degree in Music Education and Flute Performance from West Virginia University, Morgantown. She is an active member of the Ohio Music Education Association (OMEA) where she serves as an adjudicator for Solo and Ensemble and Large Group adjudicated events. She is also a co-host for High School Large Group Band and Choir and Marching Band adjudicated events. Dr. Devore is a member of the National Association for Music Education, Ohio Music Education Association, American Choral Directors Association, Ohio Choral Directors Association, National Education Association, Ohio Education Association, and the Revere Education Association.