

"OVIATT HOUSE—A JEWEL IN OHIO'S HIDDEN TREASURE"

PRESENTED BY JUDY BOWMAN,
PRESIDENT OF OVIATT HOUSE INCORPORATED
AND SPONSORED BY
RICHFIELD HISTORICAL SOCIETY

SUNDAY - SEPTEMBER 25, 2022 - 2:00 P.M.
RICHFIELD FELLOWSHIP HALL
3903 BROADVIEW ROAD

The house--- located at the corner of W. Streetsboro Road and Oviatt Road in Richfield Heritage Preserve---was built in 1836 and was the residence of Mason and Fanny Oviatt along with their 11 children. Learn about the history of the house and its owners---especially the Oviatts with their ties to the abolitionist John Brown and the Underground Railroad. Hear about OHI's efforts to restore this historically significant pre-Civil War structure, which was recently listed on the National Park Service's National Underground Railroad Network to Freedom program, and plans for its future. This event is free and open to the public. No reservations are required. Check our website, richfieldohiohistoricalsociety.org, for any event updates.
